Please be aware that some charges may vary slightly, dependent on the ranges, options and third parties selected. Our team will advise you further, based on your choices.

The Unattended Funeral

This is not a traditional funeral, but rather a direct cremation. There is no change in the level of care, but there will be no service for mourners to attend.

We will bring the deceased into our care from a local address, provide a simple coffin, and then take them to a crematorium of our choosing in a private ambulance at a day and time of our choice – within 14 days of completion of the necessary paperwork.

Disbursements, such as Doctor and crematorium fees, are included but the full cost of the service must be paid in advance.

Total Cost	£1,375

The Unattended or Direct Burial

This is a simple burial with no service, mourners or ceremony. It provides a low cost option for those requiring a burial but who can't afford the full costs usually associated, or for those who have requested no fuss in their final wishes.

We will bring the deceased into our care from a local address, provide a simple coffin, care for the deceased, a hearse to the burial ground of your choice and pallbearers at the burial. It does not include the cost of the burial plot which varies depending on area, gravedigger fees, use of the Chapel of Rest, or attending the burial. Nor are you able to choose the day or time of burial. The full cost of this service must be paid in advance.

Traditional Burials – quote supplied on request

Whilst many people choose a cremation, we do offer a bespoke funeral service based on your choice of churchyard, cemetery or woodland burial. Prices tend to be higher than a cremation and can vary significantly depending on your choices and the relevant parish. Please speak to your Family Liaison Officer who will tailor a quote to your requirements.

We will always be completely transparent in our prices. If you have any questions or would like a specific quote based on personal requests, please speak to one of our team.
