Great funeral service

David and his wife at D J Cotton were simply amazing and prestige. They were very understanding and had alot of sympathy for me and my family during a very stressful time. They adapted to my needs and requests in every way without hesitation (even when I selfishly asked for 5am flower delivery). I highly recommend their kind service, no other director would have been able to meet their level. 29 Sep 2022

Family funeral service

its always a difficult choice deciding which company to choose when it comes to a family funeral ! but me and my brother decided on choosing d j cotton & son and was so pleased that we did ! david said that he would treat our mother has his own and that he did . his wife beverly also played an important part in the process taking care of flower arrangements and sympathy cards david also provided us with a minister (donna smiles) who conducted the service all in all d j cotton & sons provided a professional service from beginning to end and in my opinion went above and beyond . once again i would like to thank david beverly and donna for giving our beloved mother the send off she deserved yours sincerely chris bailey. 13 Sep 2022

Very good excellent service

I would just like to say a massive thank you to david and beverly at d j cotton and sons funeral director in corringham.They were tasked with arranging and directing our late beloved mothers funeral and from day one we recieved first class service and they went out of there way to assist us even out of hours to make the process as good as it could possibly be.They were very attentive and respectful at all times like it was there own mother.They also supplid donna the celebrant to conduct our service at the chapel who gave us a bespoke service which our mother would have been overjoyed with .we would thoroughly recommend this company to anyone who should be requiring a funeral director. 10 Feb 2022

1st Class, Compassionate, The Best!

From the very first meeting with David I was reassured by the professionalism but more importantly the commitment to doing exactly as I wanted for my fathers service. Helpful, understanding, warm, friendly and compassionate are all words that come to mind during my discussions with the team. From start to finish David took care of Absolutely every detail and the flowers which he was able to organise were simply stunning! It seems crass to mention money but I assure anyone this small independent family business really is 1st class and as competitive as any director in the local area. I give them my heartfelt thanks and would 100% recommend them to anyone! 1 July 2022

D J Cotton & Sons was founded in 2021 with the help of my wife Beverley. I had worked in the funeral industry for 8 Years and found this was where my passion was, this was when I decided to open my own independent funeral directors. We believe every family who we care for become part of our family and any loved one will be treated as if they are our relative. We also believe loved ones should have the send-off they deserve, and we feel that is reflected in our prices and our flexibility to add or take services away from packages. We can now also offer funeral finance to help with the costs.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for further information.

The loss of someone we love is one of life's most difficult experiences. The shock of the loss and the apparent darkness that surrounds us often makes the ensuing days traumatic and stressful. It is at this time we need all the help and support we can obtain when some very important decisions need to be made.

From the moment you first make contact with us, we will do all we can to help. We are available 24 hours a day, every day, being an independent business we are able to offer a personal service.

Once you have notified us of the death, we will arrange to bring your loved one to our chapel of rest. We will then arrange to meet with you to discuss funeral arrangements. This meeting can either take place in our office or the comfort of your own home which ever is most convenient to you.

We always respect your wishes, no matter how simple or complex they are, they will be dealt with in a dignified and professional manner. Following our meeting, we will send written confirmation of all the details together with estimate of costs.
